

INDEX TO THE LAWS.

|                          | Session Ch. S.   |
|--------------------------|---|
| PENITENTIARY. . . . .    | The inspectors to be styled the Directors,                     — Empowered to appoint the keeper, and to remove                     him at pleasure; to appoint deputies, assistants, officers,                     &amp;c. and to hire guards, — — — — — — To fix and regulate the salaries and compensation                     of the keeper, and all such persons as they shall hire                     or employ, — — — — — Provided that the salary for the keeper shall not ex-                     ceed $1300, that of the clerk and agent shall not exceed                     $800 each, and that of the deputy keepers and guards                     shall not exceed the sum now allowed by law, — — — — — Provided also, that no perquisite shall be allowed to                     the said keeper, or other persons employed, beyond                     the said salaries, which are to be paid as heretofore, — — — — — Provision that no coloured person should be confin-                     ed in the penitentiary for any time less than one year,                     but corporally punished. See Negroes and Slaves. — — — — — 3 When servants or slaves are sold out of the peniten-                     tiary, the keeper to deposit the money in some bank in                     Baltimore, and inform the clerk of the county, to be                     subject to the order of the levy court, 1818 157 1 Free persons enticing any slave or servant to run-                     away, or harbouring such slave, to be confined in the                     penitentiary, &amp;c. See Crimes. — — — — — 2 Declared not lawful for the courts to sentence negro                     or mulatto slaves convicted of any crime after the pas-                     sage of this act, to undergo a confinement in the pe-                     nitentiary, — — — — — 197 1 Manner of punishing such negroes, &amp;c. and provis-                     ion for valuation and payment. See Crimes. — — — — — 2 |
| PENN, JACOB, . . . . .   | Of Anne Arundel county—money to be levied for                     his support, 1808 82  |
| PENNSYLVANIA. . . . .    | An act of that state recited respecting a road compa-                     ny, and declared to be a law of this state, 1813 126  |
| PENSION. . . . .         | See Half Pay.   |
| PENSIONERS. . . . .      | Acts respecting out-pensioners in different counties, } 1809 84 See Poor. } 1814 48                     } — 80                     } 1815 116  |
| PEREMPTORYCHALLENGE. | Provision concerning, } 1809 138 13                     } 1816 45   |
| PERJURY. . . . .         | Any person convicted of taking a false oath or affir-                     mation concerning the loss of a tobacco note, to suf-                     fer as in case of wilful and corrupt perjury, 1801 63 28 Every person convicted of the crime of perjury, or                     subornation of perjury, to be sentenced to the peniten-                     tiary not less than 5 nor more than 10 years, 1809 138 8 Inspectors or keepers convicted of swearing falsely in                     the premises, to suffer as in the case of wilful and cor-                     rupt perjury, — — — — — 43   |
| PERMITS. . . . .         | The county clerks empowered, during the recess,                     when no associate judge resides in the county, to grant                     permits, in all cases where an associate justice hereto-                     fore could, and in the same manner, &amp;c. 1816 242 The money to be paid and accounted for as for other                     licenses, and recognizance filed, &amp;c. — — — — — The 47th clause of the act of 1805, ch. 65, repealed,                     If intended for any other person (in certain counties,)                     the permit not to be granted, 1817 227 6.  |
| PERSONAL ACTION.         | The right to recover the forfeiture against officers                     not making returns of writs of habeas corpus not to                     cease by the death of either or both parties, 1809 125 3   |