

INDEX TO THE LAWS.

Session Ch. S.

PILOTS. . . . .	Additional allowance to pilots for touching at Hampton Roads, or at Annapolis, for any other cause than distress of weather, 1803 63 14 Pilots obliged when they receive their pilotage to produce a copy of this act to the master, ——— 15 — — — Penalty on refusal or neglect, ——— — Wages, &amp;c. to pilots, who may be carried to sea against their inclination, ——— 16 Pilots refusing on notice to aid any vessel in distress, within six leagues to the southward of Cape Henry, or to the eastward of Cape Charles, or in Chesapeake Bay, on proof thereof before the board, shall be rendered incapable of serving, ——— 17 Further allowance to pilots detained on board of vessels subjected to quarantine, ——— 18 — — — For detention by masters, not being ready to proceed according to their notice, ——— 19 Every pilot shall, within three months after obtaining his warrant, take at least one white apprentice, and instruct him in the art of piloting, ——— 20 — — — Such apprentice to have freedom dues, and the usual allowance at the expiration of his time, and to be exempt from militia duty, ——— — Provisional regulations concerning the piloting of vessels bound to Virginia, ——— 21 All contracts made between the master of any vessel in distress, and any pilot, shall be void; but the pilot shall be entitled to a reasonable reward for his aid, &amp;c. ——— 22 Directions for filling vacancies in the board of examiners, ——— 23 Provision that the act should commence on the first of February 1804, and continue in force until congress should take cognizance of the subject, ——— 24 Vessels belonging to persons not citizens of the United States, arriving from sea, obliged to take a pilot if offered, ——— 25 — — — One third additional pilotage to be paid, and the same, if the pilot is refused, ——— — Pilots neglecting to renew their warrants to pay double fees after the first of June in every year, unless prevented by sickness or being carried out to sea, ——— 26 The board of examiners empowered to decide all matters relative to this act, whether penalty or dispute, within three days after application by the complainants, ——— 27 The acts of 1787, ch. 26, and 1790, ch. 27, repealed, so far as provided for by this act, ——— 28 The board of examiners directed to grant a licence to a man of colour therein mentioned, 1815 101 Exception as to pilots, in the act to prevent the inconveniencies arising from slaves being permitted to act as free, 1817 104 2 Fine on pilots charging or receiving greater or lesser fees than allowed by law, 1818 188 2 The warrants or licenses of pilots to become void on their removal out of the state, ——— 3 — — — The evidence thereof shall be the public declaration of the board published in two or more of the newspapers printed in Baltimore, ——— — No person entitled to a warrant unless he shall satisfy the board that he has been employed three years in the business of piloting in the Chesapeake Bay, ——— 4 Penalty on any person who shall employ his vessel as a pilot boat, unless he is a licensed pilot, and follows that occupation, ——— 5
PLANTATION UTENSILS.	Not to be valued for the public assesment, 1812 191 1	