

INDEX TO THE LAWS.

Session Ch. 3.

SLAVES. . . . .	See Servants and Slaves , and Negroes and Slaves .
SMALL DEBTS. . . . .	Where witnesses do not attend, according to summons, attachment may be issued by the justice,	1801 42 1
	— The attachment, how returnable,	— — — —
	— The offender may be fined not exceeding 20s. towards defraying the county charges,	— — — —
	— Execution to issue to the constable, on refusal to pay, to levy the fine and costs on the lands, &c.	— — — — 2
	— The constable receiving the fine to pay it to the justice, to be returned by him, and paid to the county clerk,	— — — —
	— The county clerks to make return of all such fines received to the levy courts,	— — — — 3
	The 8th section of the act of 1791, ch. 68, repealed,	— — — — 4
	Supersedeas taken by a justice of the peace not to be returned to the county court to be recorded or filed,	— — 62 1
	— Execution may be issued by such justice or any other of the county, against the debtor and securities or either of them,	— — — — 2
	— To be executed by constables or sheriffs,	— — — — 3
	Judgment by a single magistrate may be revived by scire facias issued by him, or any other of the county,	— — — — 4
	— To be returnable within forty days to the justice issuing the same, or to any other in the county,	— — — —
	— To be served by the constable, and returned, as in the case of original warrants, with the same fees, and under the same penalties,	— — — —
	Persons committed by the justices may be delivered at the county gaol by the constable to the sheriff or gaoler,	— — — — 5
	Table of fees allowed to justices of the peace,	— — 74 30
	On the neglect of constable to return any execution, or on his failing to produce the defendant, he may be fined, and judgment may be entered against him for the debt and costs,	1806 21 2
	— The justice may issue execution for such fine, &c.	— — — — 3
	If the constable shall satisfy the plaintiff, he shall have the same remedy against the defendant,	— — — — 4
	Any justice of the peace empowered to determine controversies where the debt, &c. does not exceed fifty dollars, as before, when not exceeding ten pounds,	1809 76 1
	— On judgments exceeding ten pounds the defendant may supersede within sixty days, which shall stay execution for twelve months thereafter,	— — — — 2
	— The supersedeas to be taken by the justices who rendered the judgment, and no other, if living in the county, and acting as such,	— — — — 3
	Each justice directed to keep a docket, and enter his proceedings, &c. to furnish the parties with copies of judgments, on which any other justice may issue execution,	— — — — 4
	— On omission to keep such docket, &c. whereby the debt may be lost, the justice to satisfy the same,	— — — — 5
	County courts not to hold plea in cases within the justices jurisdiction, not exceeding fifty dollars, except on writs, before the first of May then next,	— — — — 6
	Judgments by justices of the peace to be entered so as to carry interest from the date,	— — 153 5
	The penalty of constables bonds increased,	— — 177
	Constables directed to give receipts for evidences of debts put in their hands for collection, if demanded, on penalty of $ 5 for neglect or refusal,	— — — — 4
	Direct ions as to executions on judgments under the act of 1808, ch. 19, which had expired,	— — 205 2
	Where a judgment confessed before a justice of the peace, with stay of execution, has been assigned, no	