

NOV. SESS.
1782.

APPENDIX.

NOVEMBER SESSION, 1782.

No. 1.

Relative to Washington College.

The address in behalf of the visitors and governors of Washington College, and their declaration of trust, with the list of subscriptions towards founding and supporting the said college, and copies of the letter from the said visitors to his Excellency General Washington, and his answer being read,

RESOLVED, That the visitors of Kent county school have exerted themselves with a laudable diligence and address in the execution of the trust committed to them for founding the said college.

RESOLVED, That the numerous subscribers towards the college have given an exemplary proof of their zeal for the honour and interest of their country, by contributing so freely and liberally towards the establishment of a general seminary for the advancement of knowledge, virtue and public spirit.

RESOLVED, That the declaration of trust by the visitors and governors of the said college, is an acceptable pledge and assurance, that they will continue to exert their utmost zeal and abilities in carrying on and completing the establishment of a seminary so successfully begun, and which promises to be of public utility to the present and future generations.

RESOLVED, That their exertions merit the approbation of the legislature, and (when circumstances will permit,) ought to receive their public encouragement and assistance.

RESOLVED, That the exalted and patriotic sentiments contained in the letter of his Excellency General Washington, in answer to the letter of the visitors of Kent county school, and the polite manner in which he hath been pleased to accept the honourable intentions of the general assembly in dignifying the college with his name, are proofs of that goodness and greatness of soul by which he is actuated in all his conduct.

RESOLVED, That the several papers upon which these resolutions are founded, be entered on the journals of assembly, and be published with the same in honour to the first founders, benefactors, and patrons of this seminary.

No. 2.

Treasurer authorized to grant a certificate, &c.

RESOLVED, That the treasurer of the western shore be ordered to grant to Alexander Symmer, a certificate for the sum due him, as audited and passed by the auditor-general and intendant, and pay the same out of the money that shall be received by the said treasurer for property sold, formerly belonging to James Russell, and not already appropriated.

No. 3.

No land warrants to be laid, &c.

On consideration of the remonstrance of sundry inhabitants of Worcester county, respecting the Bald Beach in said county, and the report thereon, RESOLVED, That no land warrants shall be laid on any of the said grounds, for the purpose of securing to any individual an exclusive right to the same, until the general assembly shall take order therein.

APRIL SESSION, 1783.

No. 1.

Upon examining the subject matter relative to the sale of My Lady's Manor, in Baltimore and Harford counties, RESOLVED,
