

APPENDIX.

APRIL SESS.
1783.

That so soon as an accurate survey can be made, the commissioners be directed to confirm said sale, and execute deeds to the purchasers accordingly.

Sale to be confirmed

No. 2.

Whereas William Read, by his humble petition to this general assembly, has set forth, that by virtue of a special warrant, and also of a special order from Robert Eden, Esquire, then governor of Maryland, directed to the surveyor of Queen-Anne's county, he had surveyed four hundred and twenty-nine acres of land called "Wright's Square Corrected," lying in the reserve of Queen-Anne's county manor, and had returned a certificate for the same, and had also paid the caution money thereon; which said warrant and order were issued, and the said certificate was returned before the late act of assembly respecting reserved lands; and praying that the register of the land office might be directed to issue a patent on the said certificate; and the facts set forth in the said petition appearing to this house to be true, therefore, RESOLVED, That the register of the land office do and he is hereby directed, to make out a patent to the said William Read on the certificate aforesaid, agreeable to the prayer of the said petition.

Patent to be made out to Wm. Read

NOVEMBER SESSION 1783.

No. 1.

WHEREAS it appears to this general assembly, that Martin Adams, late of Frederick county, in obtaining a lease for lives of certain lands on Monocacy Manor from the proprietary agent, by mistake, had the name of Henry inserted instead of Andrew: And whereas the supposed life estate in the lands was, by will, afterwards bequeathed to the said Andrew: And whereas the lands have since been sold by the state, and the person in whom the right now is, has declared his willingness to relinquish the purchase in favour of the petitioner; RESOLVED, That the commissioners for confiscated property after due notice, do again set up to public sale the aforesaid lot of ground, distinguished on the present plot by No. 29, for the use of Andrew Adams, his life therein, and sell the reversion to the highest bidder, on the same terms that the former sale was made, and that the treasurer deliver up any monies, certificates or securities, which may have been paid in virtue of the former sale.

Lot of ground to be again set up to public sale

NOVEMBER SESSION 1784.

No. 1.

WHEREAS this house, on the twenty-third day of November, in the year 1781, resolved unanimously that the governor be requested to write to Mr. Peale of Philadelphia, to procure, as soon as might be, the portrait of his Excellency General Washington at full length, to be placed in the house of delegates, in grateful remembrance of that most illustrious character: And whereas this house are informed that the said portrait, with the frame, is finished, and ready to be delivered; therefore,

RESOLVED, That the governor be empowered to draw on the intendant of the revenue for such sum of money as may be neces-

Governor empowered to draw for money to pay for portrait, &c.