NOVEMBER SESSION, 1792.

No. 1.

RESOLVED, That the register of the land office for the western shore, on payment of the usual fees, be and he is hereby authorised and directed to grant to Edward Abell, of Saint-Mary's county, a patent for the two lots of land situate and lying in Mill Manor, in Saint-Mary's county, which were purchased of the commissioners of confiscated property by Michael Beverly, of the said county, provided the said Abell will pay to the treasurer of the western shore the sum of eleven pounds two shillings and fourpence, in specie or specie certificates.

Patent for land to be granted to Edward Abell.

No. 2.

RESOLVED, That the attorney-general be and he is hereby directed to discontinue the action of trespass and ejectment, now depending in the general court of the eastern shore, and which was instituted on behalf of the state against George Tull, for the recovery of a tract of land called Tower Hill, as confiscated property belonging to Adam Carlisle, a British subject, provided, that the state pay no costs incurred by the said George Tull; and provided also, that John Anderson, who purchased the said land of the late intendant of the revenue, be at liberty to prosecute the said suit at his own expense, if he should think proper, and shall make his election at the next term, and, in case he shall not elect to prosecute the suit aforesaid, that the treasurer of the western shore shall deliver to the said John Anderson his bond passed for the said tract of land, called Tower Hill, to the state of Maryland.

Action against Geo. Tull to be discontinued.
