

Nov. Sess.
1800.

APPENDIX.—RESOLUTIONS.

Allowance to W.
Kilty for compiling laws

No. 4.

RESOLVED, That the treasurer of the western shore be authorised and directed to pay unto William Kilty, out of any unappropriated monies that may be in the treasury, four thousand dollars, after the first day of January next, in full for his services in compiling his edition of the laws of Maryland.

Appointment of senator of U. S.

No. 5.

RESOLVED, That Tuesday, the ninth instant, be appointed to choose a senator to represent this state in the senate of the United States, who shall be a resident of the eastern shore, and that the person having the greatest number of votes be declared to be duly elected to represent this state in the senate of the United States for the remainder of the term for which James Lloyd, esquire, was elected, and that a commission issue to the said senator appointed as aforesaid, signed by the governor for the time being, or in his absence by the presiding member of the council, in the following words, to wit: To —. The legislature of Maryland, reposing especial confidence in your integrity and abilities, hath appointed you senator to represent this state in the senate of the United States for the remainder of the term for which James Lloyd, esquire, was elected, agreeably to the constitution of the United States. Given under my hand, and the seal of this state, Anno Domini

Part of Connaught
Manor authorised to be surveyed

No. 6.

RESOLVED, That the governor and council be and they are hereby authorised and requested to direct the surveyor of Cecil county to survey, at the expense of George Gale, of said county, all that tract or parcel of land, being part of new Connaught Manor, lying in Cecil county aforesaid, which was purchased by a certain John Ryan, of said county, of Daniel of Saint Thomas Jenifer, then intendant of the revenue of the state of Maryland, and by the said John Ryan conveyed to the said George Gale, by a deed executed on the first day of December, in the year of our Lord seventeen hundred and ninety-five; and that the chancellor of the state be and he is hereby authorised and requested, on certificate of survey being returned to the land office of the western shore by the said George Gale, and the sum of eight shillings and nine-pence per acre, with interest thereon from the time it was sold by the said intendant, being paid into the treasury for the tract aforesaid, to issue patent to the said George Gale for the same.

No. 7.

WHEREAS it hath been represented to this present general assembly, that Francis Ware, (who heretofore commanded the troops of this state, then the colony of Maryland, with distinguished bravery and fidelity, and who, during the late revolutionary war, was lieutenant-colonel of the first regiment raised by this state, from which service he was compelled to retire by the infirmities peculiarly incident to a military life in these climates,) has, by reason of his said infirm health, and misfortunes arising from those acts of benevolence which the duties of society often render indispensable, and not by imprudence or want of due economy, become reduced to extreme indigence in his advanced age; and it being unworthy, (both in example and principle,) of the citizens of a free republic, to desert, in their distress, those of their fellow-citizens who have
