

APPENDIX.—RESOLUTIONS.

Nov. Sess.
1801.

when received in virtue of this resolution, shall have the same effect and validity, to all intents and purposes, as if the same had been returned within the time prescribed by law; provided, that nothing herein contained shall operate so as to defeat or affect any title to said land that may already be acquired by any person or persons, or to defeat any warrant already issued, by which the said land might have been affected.

No. 7.

RESOLVED, That the treasurer of the western shore be and he is hereby authorised and required to receive from the late treasurer of the eastern shore, all monies which were deposited in the eastern shore treasury in discharge of debts due to foreigners, under the act of October session, 1780, and pass a receipt to the said late treasurer for the same.

Treasurer of western shore to receive certain monies deposited in eastern shore treasury.

No. 8.

RESOLVED, That the chancellor be authorised and requested to inquire into all the circumstances respecting a certificate of survey of a tract of land called Friendship, owned by Thomas Randall, a patent issued to Joseph Shaul for a tract of land called Amos's Venture, and also a certificate of survey called Small Hope, granted to a certain George Storm, and if he should be of opinion that the said Thomas Randall is not entitled to a grant on the said certificate called Friendship, that then and in that case the said chancellor be authorised and requested to decide thereon, and on the merits of the respective claims of the parties, in the same manner as if the said act of assembly in favour of said Thomas Randall, enacted at November session, seventeen hundred and ninety-eight, had never passed, any thing in the same to the contrary notwithstanding.

Chancellor to inquire relative to certain surveys, &c.

No. 9.

RESOLVED, That the treasurer of the western shore pay to Charles Emory, or order, seven pounds, it being a balance due to the said Charles Emory, an old bargeman, for his services on board of the barges during the late war, as appears by a voucher from the auditor's office, under the hand of the auditor.

In favour of Charles Emory

No. 10.

WHEREAS by a resolution of the general assembly of Maryland, passed at November session, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five, William Pinkney, William Cooke and Philip Barton Key, esquires, were appointed on behalf of this state to settle and adjust the western and southern boundaries between this state and the commonwealth of Virginia: And whereas at November session, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, William Cooke signified to the general assembly that he could not attend the execution of the above powers, and that William Pinkney was on business out of this state, and Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, and Jeremiah Townley Chase, esquires, were appointed with Philip Barton Key, to carry the aforesaid resolution into effect: And whereas the said resolution hath not yet been carried into effect, and Philip Barton Key hath removed out of this state, and Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, and Jeremiah Townley Chase, have signified to this general assembly that they cannot attend to the execution of the above powers; therefore, RESOLVED. That the governor and council be and they are hereby authorised and required to appoint three pro-

Commissioners to be appointed to settle and adjust limits of the state, &c.
