

APPENDIX.—RESOLUTIONS.

Nov. Sess.
1804.

chancellor shall be of opinion, from the evidence offered to him, that the said David M'Cray did assign to James Rampley his interest in the land so as aforesaid stated to be purchased from the intendant, and that the said James Rampley did also assign to George M'Cormick his interest in the said land, then it shall and may be lawful for the chancellor to order a patent to the said John Norris, of John, on the certificate aforesaid, upon his complying with all other rules and requisites of the land-office, in the same manner as if the said John Norris, of John, had actually produced and proved the said two assignments.

No. 8.

RESOLVED, That all the right and interest of the state of Maryland be and the same is hereby released unto Samuel Maynard, of the city of Annapolis, of, in and to, a parcel of land lying in Anne-Arundel county, called Smith's Delight, containing fifty acres, more or less, which was devised to John Saunders, now deceased, by Elizabeth Saunders, by her will, bearing date on or about the seventeenth day of December, Anno Domini 1773.

State's right to certain land released to Samuel Maynard.

No. 9.

RESOLVED, That the treasurers of the western and eastern shores respectively be and they are hereby directed not to deposite in any bank any specie or bank notes which hath been or may be received in the treasury, nor to exchange with any bank, directly or indirectly, for the notes of such bank, such specie or notes as may be received in the treasury of either shore, unless under the direction of the legislature.

Treasurers not to exchange notes with banks.

No. 10.

WHEREAS by a resolution which passed the general assembly of this state at November session, eighteen hundred and two, it is declared, that on John Sterrett, and others, purchasers of a tract of land in Cecil county, called The Widow's Lot, within the lines of New Connaught manor, paying to the state the full amount of the purchase money, calculating the same at twenty shillings per acre, with legal interest on the same, together with all costs of suit brought on bonds executed by them to the state for said purchase, that said bonds should be and the same was thereby cancelled, and all proceedings at law thereon stayed: And whereas it appears, by a statement from under the hand of the treasurer, that there has been overpaid into the treasury the sum of one hundred and sixteen pounds fourteen shillings by John Patterson, the sum of sixty three pounds three shillings and three-pence by John Sterrett, the sum of two hundred and thirty-five pounds two shillings by Daniel Norris, the sum of two hundred and eleven pounds seventeen shillings and seven-pence by James Nesbitt, the sum of one hundred and forty three pounds eleven shillings and four-pence by James Steel, calculating the land at the price authorised and directed by the aforesaid resolution; RESOLVED, That the chancellor on application, in writing, by, or on behalf of, any of the said purchasers, be and he is hereby authorised, in a summary way, to inquire into the several facts above stated, and if it shall appear to him equitable and proper that the said purchasers of the Widow's Lot should have refunded to them the several sums of money so by them stated to have been overpaid, or any part thereof, it shall and may be lawful for the chancellor to decree, that the treasurer of the west-Chancellor may decree that treasurer of W. S. refund money overpaid by J. Sterrett and others.