

APPENDIX.—RESOLUTIONS.

NOV. SESS.
1806.

We know, that retiring with the blessings of a great nation is desirable, and that your republican principles induce you to wish a rotation in office; but we hope that that amor patriæ, which is so natural to you, will permit your name to be placed amongst the candidates for the next president of the United States.

That you may long live to enjoy the confidence and attachment of the American people, is the wish of the Legislature of Maryland.

No. 22.

RESOLVED, That the register of the land-office for the western shore be authorised and required, to receive into his office the certificate of resurvey for a tract of land called Willew Enlarged, lying in Queen-Anne's county, and dated the nineteenth of February, seventeen hundred and seventy-four, made out for Joseph Taylor, and signed by Basil Warfield, deputy-surveyor of Queen-Anne's county, and the same shall be in the said office subject to caveat and objections for the time prescribed for other certificates, and patent shall issue thereon in the same manner as upon certificates regularly returned to the land-office.
