No. 53.

WHEREAS, It is highly important at this eventful crisis in our foreign relations, that the opinions and feelings of every section of the union should be fairly and fully expressed: Therefore, we the legislature of Maryland, do RESOLVE, That in the opinion of this legislature, the measures of the administration with respect to Great Britain have been honourable, impartial and just; that in their negotiations, they have evinced every disposition to terminate our differences on terms not incompatible with our national honour; and that they deserve the confidence and support of the nation.

Passed Dec. 30, 1811

Approving of the measures of the general government

RESOLVED, That the measures of Great Britain have been, and still are destructive of our best and dearest rights; and being inconsistent with justice, with reason and with law, can be supported only by force; therefore if persisted in, by force should be resisted.

RESOLVED, That the measures of the administration, with respect to France, we highly approve. They have been fully authorised by the law and the fact.

RESOLVED, That the acts of injustice and violence committed on our neutral rights by France, have excited all that indignation which a lawless exercise of power could not fail to do; but having now ceased to violate our neutral rights, we trust that the period is not far distant, when by acts of ample justice, all cause of complaint will be removed.
