No. 3.

WHEREAS, the secretary at war of the United States did require from the late governor of this state, that he order into service at Annapolis a portion of this state's quota of militia; and whereas, the said requisition has been gratified, and as it is represented to this general assembly that the troops thus required and now stationed at Annapolis, have not been provided by the general government with the clothing necessary for their protection from the inclemency of the present and approaching season:

Passed Nov 23

RESOLVED, That the governor and council be, and they are hereby requested to cause to be purchased for the use of the militia now stationed at Annapolis, sufficient clothing for the season.

Relative to clothing the militia stationed at Annapolis

RESOLVED, That a sum not exceeding five thousand dollars be appropriated for the above object out of any unappropriated moneys in the treasury, and that the treasurer of the western shore pay the same to the order of the governor and council.

No. 6.

RESOLVED, That Benjamin Harwood, trustee of the state be, and he is hereby authorised and directed, to transfer the amount of thirty thousand dollars of the six per cent. stock of the United States, to the president and directors of the Potomac Company, upon their pledging the funds of said company, and upon the president and directors giving bond with such security as the treasurer may approve of for the reimbursement of the principal in instalments of three four and five years, with interest upon the whole amount of principal from the date of the transfer and the payment of such interest annually.

No. 7.

WHEREAS, by a resolution of the general assembly of Maryland, of November session of eighteen hundred and six, the governor and council were authorised and required to procure three elegant swords and belts with an appropriate engraving and motto, emblematic of the glorious actions fought off Tripoli, and cause the same to be delivered to Charles Gordon, John Tripp and John Davis, in testimony of the high sense of approbation the legislature of this state entertained of their gallant conduct: And whereas, by the death of John Davis before the resolution could be fully carried into effect, the sword intended for him now remains in the council chamber; therefore,

Passed Dec. 25,

RESOLVED, That the governor and council be, and they are hereby authorised and directed to present to the nearest surviving male relation of the said John Davis, the sword thus intended for the said John Davis.

Relative to a sword intended to have been presented to the late John Davis.

No. 8.

WHEREAS, it is not only a generous and noble, but also a wise policy in us, as a free and republican government, to distinguish with our highest approbation, expressed in the most pointed and emphatic manner, such of our citizens as evince by their actions a particular devotion to the common weal, so that all may be stimulated to virtuous actions, conscious that if it is deserved they will experience the gratitude of their country; and thus an holy emulation will be excited amongst us, in performing such deeds both in
