

CHAP. XXV.

CHAP. 25.

*A Further Supplement to the act,* entitled, An act to lay out a Road from Aquila Tarman's Tavern to Thomas Cockey's Mill, and from said Mill to the Road called the Deer Park Road. Lib. JG. No. 4, fol. 377.*

Passed Dec. 31.
* 1801, ch. 20.

WHEREAS by an act of assembly, entitled,† A supplement to the act to which this is a further supplement, any justice of the peace in and for Baltimore county was authorised to cause a jury to be summoned to assess the damages which a certain Samuel Wheeler hath sustained by reason of the road mentioned in the original act to which this is a further supplement, running through his lands, and the said Samuel Wheeler having never applied to any justice for the purpose aforesaid; and doubts being entertained whether the said law can be carried into execution, except the said Samuel Wheeler shall apply as aforesaid, therefore,

Preamble.
† 1802, ch. 43.

2. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That in case Samuel Wheeler shall not, on or before the twentieth day of March next, apply to some justice of the peace for Baltimore county to issue his warrant to the sheriff of said county, commanding him to summon twelve good and lawful freeholders, disinterested and unconnected with either party, to appear before him the said justice, on the premises, on a certain day expressed in the said warrant, to inquire and ascertain, upon their oaths, what damages the said Samuel Wheeler hath sustained by reason of the road mentioned in the original act to which this is a further supplement running through his the said Samuel Wheeler's land, that then and in such case Thomas Cockey, of the said county, shall have full power to call on some justice of the peace, on giving the said Wheeler five days previous notice thereof, who shall issue his warrant as aforesaid for the purpose aforesaid; and when the said jury have ascertained the damages occasioned thereby, the said Thomas Cockey shall, upon payment, or tender of payment, to the said Samuel Wheeler, thenceforth proceed to open the road aforesaid, any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

Jury may be summoned to ascertain damages.

CHAP. XXVI.

An Act to lay out a Road from Crispin Cunningham's to Frances Smith's Stone-House, in Harford County. Lib. JG. No. 4, fol. 378.

Passed Dec. 31.

WHEREAS it has been represented to this general assembly, by the petition of sundry inhabitants of Harford county, that they labour under considerable inconveniencies from the want of a public road to run from Crispin Cunningham's, the place of holding one of their district elections, to Frances Smith's stone-house; therefore,

Preamble.

2. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That William Loney, John Cooley and Paca Smith, or a majority of them, be and they are hereby appointed commissioners to survey and lay out a road, not exceeding thirty feet in width clear of ditches, in as straight and convenient a direction as may be, from Crispin Cunningham's to Frances Smith's stone-house.

Commissioners appointed to lay out road.

3. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the said commissioners, or a majority of them, shall and they are hereby directed and required to make, or cause to be made, a plot of the said road, when surveyed as aforesaid, and to ascertain and estimate the damages that may be sustained by any person or persons through whose lands the same shall pass, and shall make return of said plot, together with a Plot to be made - damages to be ascertained.