

INDEX TO THE CHANCERY LAWS.

CHANCERY. . . .	Session Ch. S.
the chancellor may decree against them as equity and good conscience require,	1793 75 3
Ca sa's issuing out of the chancery court may be entered not called, and new writ issue,	1802 109
Mode of determining in the chancery court as to the lunacy of persons entitled to be executors or administrators,	1798, No. 101 4 5
The court of chancery may decree or give directions in cases where under a will it shall be necessary for an executor or administrator to retain assets in his hands for the payment of money at a distant period,	— 10 11
No part of the real estate of a ward shall be diminished on account of his maintenance or education, without the approbation of the chancery court, as well as the orphans court,	— 12 10
Nothing in this act to affect the general superintending power of the chancery court with respect to trust,	— — 16
The payment of legacies may be compelled by a suit in the chancery court, &c.	— 14 6
Where a citizen has purchased land, the legal title whereof is outstanding or in a British subject, or in the state, on bill being filed, chancellor to decree, &c.	1805 93
— Money to be decreed to be paid if any due, and if nothing due. chancellor to convey,	— —
The chancellor to execute deeds for lands sold by the commissioners of confiscated property,	— 99
Where the chancellor is interested in any cause in chancery, the chief judge of the district in which the chancery court shall sit to decide, &c.	— 65 19
In any suit in which the chancellor may have been counsel, or has given an opinion, the chief judge of the third judicial district to decide, &c.	1806 55 1
The chancellor may require the opinion of the said chief judge on any question of law in any suit in chancery, &c.	— — 2
In all cases depending in the chancery court, respondents to have all the benefits and advantages given to complainants by the act of 1806, ch. 53, s. 1,	1811 189
See Chancellor County Courts .
In cases where power is given to take bill pro confesso , &c. decision may be made on testimony taken between the parties instead of issuing commission,	1818 193 5
Provisions of the act of 797, ch. 43, in addition to those given sheriffs, extended to the court of chancery and county courts as courts of equity,	— — 6
Chancery court may decree a sale of the equitable title to real estates,	— — 7
— May decree a sale of the real estate to save the personal, &c.	— — 8
— May, when sales have been made under a supposed authority of a will, confirm such sale, &c.	— — 9
In case of lands descending to minors residing out of the state, on bill filed, courts may issue commission to have guardians appointed to defend suit, &c.	— — 12
Same proceedings to be had as if infant had been summoned, &c.	— — —
Courts may decree a sale of such lands if it appear for the benefit of such infants,	— — 13
Upon appeals from chancery or county courts as courts of equity, if it appear that proper parties have not been made, court of appeals may either reverse the decree or award a new trial, &c.	— — 14
Taxes in chancery to be sent out for collection, &c.	1804 64
Decrees and final proceedings in chancery court unrecorded may be certified, &c. in the same manner as if such decrees, &c. had been duly recorded, &c.	1817 119 2
See Descents .	