

INDEX TO THE CHANCERY LAWS.

	Session Ch. S.
CHANCERY. . . . . .
The clerks or registers of courts of justice to make up their records, &c.	1817 119 7
The provisions of the act of 1817, ch. 139, for the conveyance and return of process, extended to the chancery court,	1819 144 3
CHIEF JUDGE. . . . . .
See Chancery .
CLERKS. . . . . .
Fees allowed them in chancery proceedings,	1779 25 3
See County Courts .
COMMISSION. . . . . .
Directions for the issuing commissions to perpetuate testimony in the chancery court,	July 1799 8 8
The parties, and their attorneys or agents, shall have a right to be present at the execution of all commissions issued from the court of chancery,	1785 72 14
— Directions respecting the execution of such commissions,	— — 15
— Allowance to witnesses summoned thereon,	— — 16
— Manner of enforcing the payment,	— — 18
Commission for taking depositions may issue with the consent of both parties, to one person instead of four,	1795 88 4
— Allowance to commissioners,	— — —
Commission for any other purpose may issue with the like consent and approbation of the chancellor, to one person, or to three with power to any two,	1799 79 6
Commission to be allowed by the chancellor to guardians, trustees, &c. making disposition or sale of property under an order or decree,	April 1787 30 5
Commission to issue for dividing or valuing the real estates of persons dying intestate where the parties cannot agree, or any one is a minor,	1784 45 8 9 1797 114 6 1799 49
County courts to issue commission to take answers of defendants, and also take depositions of witnesses, &c.	1815 163 4
Where a widow entitled to dower does not consent to a sale of the whole lands, &c. county courts or chancellor to issue commission, &c.	1816 154 11
Where guardians petition for the sale of the real estate of infants, courts to issue commission to three discreet freeholders to ascertain the real value of the lands, &c.	1818 133 2
See Chancery. County Courts .
COMMISSIONERS. . . . . .
See County Courts. Chancery .
COMMITTEE. . . . . .
The chancellor may appoint a committee for lunatics, &c.	1785 72 6
COMMON LAW. . . . . .
The rule of common law shall take place between the parties entitled to real estate, as to the enjoyment thereof, if it consist of things indivisible in their nature,	1786 45 8
CONFISCATION. . . . . .
The chancellor empowered to determine all disputes between the purchasers of confiscated property and the state,	April 1787 30 4
Deeds to be executed by the chancellor on sales made by governor and council,	1802 100 11
Where purchases have been made before the act of confiscation and no deed executed, on bill filed chancellor to decree a conveyance on money being paid, if any due,	1805 93
The chancellor to execute deeds for lands sold by the commissioners of confiscated British property, &c.	— 99