INDEX TO THE CHANCERY LAWS.

		Session	Ch.	S.
	If any man shall have one or more children by any woman whom he shall afterwards marry, such child or children, if acknowledged by the man, shall in virtue of such marriage and acknowledgment, be legitimated, and capable in law to inherit and transmit inherit-	1777	12	14
MINORS	ance as if born in wedlock, See Infants.	1,00
MORTGAGE	On loan of money by a foreigner to a citizen of this state on legal interest, any mortgage made to secure the same, acknowledged and recorded as the law directs, to be good and valid, and to stand as a secur ty according to its purport; and although there be no covenant or express agreement for the payment of such money, the mortgagor, his heirs, &c. to pay as if such express covenant had been inserted,	1784	58	2
	The court of chancery to foreclose such mortgage, &c. in order to compel the payment,			3
	The legislature not to interfere, Manner of decreeing a foreclosure or sale of mortgaged property possessed by persons under age, idiots, funatics, or non compos mentis,	1785	72	1 3 9
				30
1	Proceedings in chancery, where a mortgagor, his theirs, &c. shall be a British subject, and the person having the right a citizen, Where a mortgagor of real property within this state to a citizen thereof shall reside out of the state,			29
ŧ	and within the United States, When a mortgagor has removed, and his situati-			30
•	on, or that of his representatives, cannot be ascertained,	1794	60	9
•	N.
NON COMPOS MEN- TIS.	See Idiots. Infants. Lunatics.
NON EST FACTUM	Upon actions in bond against trustees appointed by he chancellor, or county courts, for sale of real esates of minors, the plea of non est factum not to be received unless verified by affidavit,	1816	154	3
NON RESIDENTS	See Chancery. County Courts.
NOTICE	See Chancery. County Courts.
	0.
OATHS	See Chancery.
ORDERS	See County Courts.
ORPHANS	See Guardians. Infants.
n t c s	The orphans courts or the chancery courtempowered to decree or give directions to executors or administrators, with a copy of the will annexed, to reain the personal estate or a part thereof, after all laims are discharged whereby the will, meney, or ome other thing is directed to be paid, at a distant period or upon a contingency,	. 101	10	11