

INDEX TO THE CHANCERY LAWS.

	Session Ch. S.
REGISTER IN CHANCERY. fusing or neglecting to perform the duties, to forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding 100 dollars for every offence, to be recovered by indictment, &c	1817 119 7
The register in chancery, or the clerks, not to make up the record of any judgment, decree, or judicial proceeding, not relating to real estates, unless required in writing by some person interested, &c.	— — 8
Any person requiring an exemplification or official copy of a record of such judgment, decree or judicial proceeding, the clerk or register may grant and certify the same, &c	— — —
The register or clerk to transcribe in a fair and correct manner, in a well bound book procured for that purpose, the minutes of the court , &c instead of making up the records, the judgments, &c and on neglect or refusal to forfeit a sum not exceeding $100 for every offence, to be recovered by indictment,	— — 9
Directions relative to their compensation, See County Courts .	— — 10
RELEASES. See County Clerks. Register in Chancery.
REMAINDER AND REVERSION.
The chancellor empowered to direct the sale of any remainder or reversion on lands in this state belonging to minors residents out of the state and the United States, for payment of debts due from the persons from whom they derive such remainder or reversion,	1790 38 2
Powers of the chancellor or county courts where infants are seized of a reversion, &c.	1816 154 16
Where a person is entitled to the remainder after the life estate, the like proceedings shall be had as are directed with regard to a person entitled to an undivided part of an intestate's estate, subject to a tenancy by the curtesy,	1786 45 8 Note (f)
RESPONDENTS. To have all the benefits and advantages given to complainants by the act of 1806, ch. 55, s. 1.	1811 189
REVERSION. See Remainder and Reversion.
RULES. See County Courts.
S.
SALE. On application by a representative of a person deceased, who shall have contracted for the sale and conveyance of lands, and not performed the same, and shall have devised or left them to descend to persons under age, &c if the said representatives are immediately interested in having a specific performance, the chancellor may decree the same as in other cases by the act of 1773, ch. 7.	1791 79 4
Manner of decreeing a foreclosure or sale of mortgaged property possessed by persons under age, idiots, lunatics, or non compos mentis ,	1785 72 1 2 3
— Directions respecting the terms of sale,	— — 3,9
The chancellor empowered to appoint a person to sell real or personal estate left to be sold for payment of debts or other purposes, where no person has been appointed by will to sell, or the person appointed neglects or refuses, so that a sale cannot be made,	— — 4
In case of persons dying without leaving personal estate to discharge their debts, and leaving a real estate to descend to a minor, idiot, lunatic, or a person non compos mentis , or who shall become so, or devise	