

INDEX TO THE CHANCERY LAWS.

		Session Ch. S.
WILLS . . . . .	Widow entitled to dower in lands held by equitable title in husband, &c	1818 193 10
	Such right of dower not to prejudice any claim for the purchase money, &c.	— — —
	In case widow is entitled to dower in any real estate sold, proportion of purchase money to be awarded her,	1819 183 1
	Before any sale to affect her interest her consent in writing to be filed,	— — — 2
	When it is necessary under a will to retain the personal estate, or a part thereof, after the payment of debts, as where money or some other thing is directed to be paid at a distant period or upon a contingency, the court of chancery shall have power to decree or give directions relative thereto,	1798, 10110 11
WITNESSES . . . . .	See Chancery. County Courts. Depositions. Evidence.

END OF THE SEVENTH VOLUME.