

CHAP. 80.

Allowance to commissioners.

6. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the commissioners appointed in virtue of this act shall be entitled to receive the same compensation for each day they shall attend to the discharge of the duties herein required, as the commissioners appointed in the said original act were entitled to receive, to be levied, collected and paid, as other county charges are levied, collected and paid.

Parts of acts repealed.

7. AND BE IT ENACTED, That such parts of the said original act, and the several supplements thereto, as are inconsistent with, and repugnant to, this law, be and the same are hereby repealed.

CHAP. LXXXI.

Passed Jan. 7, 1804 An Act to alter and change the name of James Donaldson Lowry, of the City of Baltimore, to that of James Lowry Donaldson. Lib. JG. No. 4, fol. 460. A Private Act.

CHAP. LXXXII.

Passed Jan. 7, 1804 A Further Additional Supplement to an act, (a) entitled, An act for the opening of Second-street in the City of Baltimore. Lib. JG. No. 4, fol. 461.

(a) 1798, ch. 19. See 1800, ch. 56, and 1801, ch. 81.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, by the petition of sundry inhabitants of the city of Baltimore, that under the operation of an act, entitled, An act for the opening of Second-street in the city of Baltimore, and the several supplements thereto, the property of many individuals have been taxed and made liable for a sum of money surpassing any advantage or convenience derived in consequence of the opening and extending the said street, and praying that a law may pass authorising the mayor and city council of Baltimore to appropriate part of the city funds towards defraying the expense thereof; therefore,

City funds may be appropriated for opening street.

2. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall and may be lawful for the mayor and city council of Baltimore, by their ordinance, to appropriate so much of the city funds as they may deem adequate for the benefit which the public have derived by the opening and extending Second-street in the city of Baltimore, and to apportion and pay such sum or sums of money, so appropriated and apportioned, to each and every person whose property has heretofore been charged and made liable for the expense incurred under the operation of an act of the general assembly, entitled, An act for the opening of Second-street in the city of Baltimore, and the several supplements thereto.

CHAP. LXXXIII.

Passed Jan. 7, 1804 An Act relating to the Inspection of Flour and other Articles in the Precincts of the City of Baltimore. Lib. JG. No. 4, fol. 462.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, that many persons residing in the precincts of the city of Baltimore labour under great disadvantages by reason of the inspectors of said city not being authorised to inspect flour and other articles within the said precincts; for remedy whereof,

Laws heretofore passed on the subject to extend to the precincts of city.

2. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the laws heretofore passed, or hereafter to be passed, respecting the inspection of flour, provisions, butter and liquors, and the ordinances of the corporation of the city of Baltimore, so far as the same
