CHAP. VIII.

Passed Jan. 5, 1805 An Act to lay out and make public a Road therein mentioned in Harford County. Lib. JG. No. 4, fol. 534.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, by the petition of sundry inhabitants of Harford county, that they labour under great inconvenience from the want of a public road leading from a place known by the name of John Bull's Blacksmith's Shop, near Thomas's run, to Belle-Air, and praying that commissioners may be appointed to lay out the same from said shop to intersect the road leading from the Stone House, near Belle-Air, to the lower cross roads at or near the mouth of Harry Gough's lane; and the same being considered reasonable, therefore,

Commissioners appointed to review and lay out a road.

2. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Parker Hall Lee, Abraham Jarrett, William Wilson, of William, be and they are hereby appointed commissioners, and they, or a majority of them, are hereby authorised and empowered to review the private road now leading from John Bull's blacksmith's shop, near Thomas's run, to Belle-Air, through the lands of Henry Waters, Henry Ruff, senior, Henry Ruff, junior, the heirs of James Cain, Henry Dorsey and John Moores, to intersect the road leading from the Stone House, near Belle-Air, to the lower cross roads, at or near the mouth of Harry Gough's lane, and to lay out, survey, mark and bound the same, not exceeding forty feet in width, except so far and such parts thereof as now run through the cleared lands of the persons aforesaid, and to make a plot of the said road, when laid out, surveyed, marked and bounded, including the said parts which run through the cleared land aforesaid, and return such plot, under their hands and seals, to the clerk of Harford county, to be by him recorded among the land records of the
