

the inspector or inspectors, on delivering the same, shall take in his or their former notes, and be answerable for the safe keeping of every hogshead of tobacco, the note for which shall be so delivered, in the same manner that they are now for crop tobacco, but the person receiving such note shall pay to the inspector or inspectors the sum of five dollars for the cask, nails and prizing thereof; and the inspector or inspectors shall sell all transfer tobacco which shall not be so received and marked, on the second day of holding the county courts in each county respectively on each shore, if fair, if not, on the first fair day thereafter, by public auction, in single hogsheads, and not otherwise, and shall pay the money arising from such sale at the average price of the sale of tobacco belonging to each house, in satisfaction of their notes from time to time to the proprietors thereof making their demand, under the same penalty as is prescribed for not paying inspectors notes.

3. AND BE IT ENACTED. That all transfer tobacco, when prized in hogsheads, shall be subject to the same charges for inspection and otherwise, as crop tobacco is subject to. Transfer tobacco subject to same charges as crop.

4. AND, whereas doubts have arisen as to the legality of the inspectors permitting persons who may offer tobacco in hogsheads at the respective warehouses which may be refused, to carry the same so refused from the warehouse at which it shall have been offered, and it appearing reasonable that such indulgence should be given to every person thus circumstanced. BE IT ENACTED, That in case any person shall hereafter offer at any warehouse for inspection, any tobacco in hogsheads, and the same shall be found by the inspector to be unmerchantable, it shall and may be lawful for such inspector to permit the person owning such tobacco to take away the same from the said warehouse for the purpose of altering the condition thereof, or otherwise. Persons owning tobacco found unmerchantable, permitted to take the same away.

5. AND BE IT ENACTED, That this act shall continue and be in force for the same term of the continuance of the act to which this is a further supplement; Provided, that nothing herein contained, so far as relates to transfer tobacco, shall extend, or be construed to extend, to St. Mary's county, any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding. Duration, Provided.
