

1808.

ROBERT BOWIE, ESQUIRE, GOVERNOR.

CHAP. 7.

Passed Jan 25, 1806

CHAP. VII.

An Act to authorise the Justices of the Levy Court of Washington County to assess a sum of money on the Taxable Property of said County for the purposes therein mentioned. Lib. TH. No. 1, fol. 7.

See 1807, ch. 13.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is represented by the petition of the trustees of the poor of Washington county, that the poor-house of said county is too small for the accommodation of the poor and persons of insane mind, and that for the want of such accommodations they have frequently been unable to receive such applicants: And whereas the monies heretofore levied have not been sufficient to erect a smoke-house and purchase a burial-ground for said poor-house; therefore,

Levy authorised for erection of additional buildings for poor.

2. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the levy court of Washington county shall and they are hereby directed and empowered, to assess and levy, in the year eighteen hundred and six, on all the property in said county subject and liable to assessment, a sum of money, not exceeding twelve hundred dollars, which shall be paid over to the trustees of the poor of said county, who shall apply it to the erection of such additional buildings as they may deem necessary, and also to the purchase of a lot or lots for a burial-ground for said poor-house.

CHAP. VIII.

Passed Jan 25, 1806

An Act to authorise and empower the Levy Court of Worcester County to levy annually a sum of money on the Assessable Property of said County for the purposes therein mentioned. Lib. TH. No. 1, fol. 7.

Preamble.

WHEREAS Joseph Tilghman, by his petition to this general assembly, hath set forth, that he has been afflicted in a manner so as to render him incapable of obtaining a livelihood; that he has a daughter named Betsy Tilghman, about the age of seventeen years, who has been an helpless object for the last fifteen years: And whereas John Toadvine and Severn Tarr, and Elijah Tarr in behalf of his daughter Anne Tarr, of said county, by their petitions to this general assembly have also set forth, that they are poor and infirm, and are rendered unable to support themselves by labour, and praying that an act may pass authorising the levy court of Worcester county to levy a sum of money on the assessable property of said county for the support and maintenance of the said Joseph Tilghman and Betsy Tilghman his daughter, John Toadvine, Severn Tarr, and Elijah Tarr, in behalf of his said daughter Anne Tarr; and the facts stated in the said petitions appearing to be true, therefore,

Levy for support of certain persons.

2. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the levy court of Worcester county shall be and they are hereby directed and empowered, at their levy court annually, so long as they shall see cause, to assess and levy on the assessable property of the said county a sum of money, not exceeding one hundred and twenty-five dollars, for the support and maintenance of the said Joseph Tilghman, and Betsy Tilghman his daughter, John Toadvine and Severn Tarr, and Elijah Tarr in behalf of his said daughter Anne Tarr, and that the same be collected annually by the collector or collectors of Worcester county, and paid to such person as the levy court of said county shall or may direct.

This act, as far as it relates to Joseph and Betsy Tilghman, repealed by 1808, ch. 25.
