

filling up and wharfing out as aforesaid, and shall distinctly state, by name, to what amount each person will be so injured; and shall also assess and estimate what sum of money each person, by name, who will be benefitted thereby, shall contribute and pay towards compensating the person or persons injured by filling up and wharfing out as aforesaid, and return the same to the sheriff, under their hands and seals, who shall deliver the same to the register of the city, to be filed by him as aforesaid; and the person or persons benefitted by filling and wharfing out as aforesaid, and assessed as aforesaid, shall pay the sum or sums so charged and assessed to him or them as aforesaid, with interest thereon at the rate of six per cent. from the time herein after limited for the payment thereof, to the person or persons injured as aforesaid, in the proportions so ascertained and assessed.

3. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the sums of money so as aforesaid assessed and charged to each individual benefitted by filling up and wharfing out as aforesaid, shall be a lien upon and bind all the property so benefitted thereby, to the full amount thereof, and in case the person or persons injured by filling up and wharfing out as aforesaid, shall not be paid the damages by them sustained and assessed as aforesaid, within six months after the same shall be so as aforesaid assessed and ascertained, he, she or they, shall and may institute suits in Baltimore county court for the recovery thereof, in which it shall be sufficient to declare for money had and received, and this act, and the proceedings under it, may be given in evidence to support such suit or suits instituted as aforesaid.

Sums assessed to each individual benefitted to be a lien upon property.

CHAP. LXXXIV.

An Act to withdraw the Funds from Washington and Saint-John's Colleges, and subject the same to the appropriation of the Legislature. Lib. TH. No. 1, fol. 120.

Passed Jan 25 1806

1. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the sum of seven hundred and fifty pounds, now appropriated by law as an annual donation to Washington College, and the sum of seventeen hundred and fifty pounds, appropriated by law as an annual donation to Saint-John's College, be and the same are hereby respectively discontinued after the first day of June next; and the said sums respectively shall be and remain in the treasury, subject to the appropriation of the legislature to literary purposes, and for disseminating learning in the several counties of this state, and not to other or different purposes.

Donation to Washington and St. John's Colleges discontinued.

2. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the second section of an act* entitled, An act to provide a permanent fund for the further encouragement and establishment of Washington College, and also the nineteenth section of the act†, entitled, An act for founding a college on the western shore of this state, and constituting the same, together with Washington College on the eastern shore, into one university, by the name of The University of Maryland, be and the same are hereby respectively repealed and annulled after the aforesaid first day of June next.

Sections of acts repealed.

*1784, ch. 7.

†1784, ch. 37.