

CHAP. 88. turned by the said commissioners aforesaid to the clerk of the said county, to be by him recorded.

Plot of road to be recorded—levy authorized.

3. AND BE IT ENACTED, That when a plot of said road shall be returned and recorded as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for the levy court of said county to levy upon the assessable property in said county a sum of money, such as they shall deem necessary under all circumstances, and to appoint an overseer to open and clear said road, agreeable to the plot and certificate aforesaid, who shall give bond in like manner as other overseers of public roads are directed to give bond, and shall have the same allowances; and the said road, when opened and cleared as aforesaid, shall be deemed, and the same is hereby declared to be thereafter, a public road, and shall be kept in repair as other public roads in said county.

Allowance to commissioners.

4. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the commissioners respectively herein before named shall be entitled to receive two dollars for every day they shall severally attend to discharge the duties required by this act, which is hereby directed to be levied, collected and paid, as other county charges are levied, collected and paid.

CHAP. LXXXIX.

Passed Jan 24, 1806
1806, ch. 86.

An Additional Supplement to an act,* entitled, An act to extend the powers of the Levy Court of Allegany County relative to Roads in said County. Lib. TH. No. 1, fol. 124.

Preamble.

WHEREAS by an act passed at November session, seventeen hundred and ninety-four, chapter fifty-two, power is given to the supervisors of public roads in Allegany county to summons and compel all able bodied male persons, above a certain age, to work annually four days on the public roads in said county; and the drawing them out the full four days as authorised appearing inconvenient and unnecessary, therefore,

Levy court to determine how many days able-bodied men shall work on roads, &c.

2. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the levy court of Allegany county shall have power, and they are hereby directed, annually, at their August meeting, to fix and determine upon the number of days the respective supervisors by them appointed shall be authorised to summons or warn all the able bodied male persons in said county, above the age of sixteen, to assist in repairing the public roads therein; Provided nevertheless, that the power hereby given to the levy court as aforesaid, shall not be considered as authorising the reduction of more than two days of labour in any one year, and that it shall and may be lawful for every person who shall be summoned or warned to work as aforesaid, and for every master or mistress of servants, in lieu of working on the public roads as aforesaid, to pay to the supervisor of their district the sum of thirty-seven and a half cents for each and every day any person shall be summoned or warned to work as aforesaid.

Proviso.

This section appears to be repealed by 1807, ch. 58.

Part of an act repealed.

3. AND BE IT ENACTED, That so much of the act passed at November session, seventeen hundred and ninety-four, chapter fifty-two, as is inconsistent herewith, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

Act continued.

4. AND BE IT ENACTED, That this act, and the act to which this is a supplement, be and they are hereby continued for and during the term of four years, and until the end of the next session of assembly which shall happen thereafter.

Further continued by 1810, ch. 147, and other annual continuing acts.
