

CHAP. 34. not applied the same to the opening of the road aforesaid; and the said commissioners hereby appointed may direct a suit or suits to be instituted against the collector who collected the said money, and his securities, for any sum of money which may remain in his hands, and which shall not be paid to them on demand.

Money unexpended, after road is completed, to be paid to levy court

6. AND BE IT ENACTED, That it shall be the duty of the commissioners appointed by this act to pay to the levy court of Prince-George's county, or their order, any sum of money which may remain in their hands unexpended, after the said part of the said road hereby directed to be opened, cleared and grubbed, shall have been completed in the manner directed by this act.

Powers vested in former commissioners annulled.

7. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the powers vested in the commissioners appointed by the act to which this is an additional supplement, and the supplementary act thereto, be and the same are hereby abrogated and annulled.

Damages ascertained to be paid according to fifth section of former law.

8. AND BE IT ENACTED, That where any person or persons shall require compensation for any damages sustained by reason of the road, (to be opened as aforesaid by the commissioners appointed by this act,) passing through his, her or their lands, the value of the damages shall be ascertained, and paid over to the person or persons entitled thereto, in the manner directed by the fifth section of the act to which this is an additional supplement.

Commissioners allowed.

9. AND BE IT ENACTED, That each commissioner appointed by this act shall receive two dollars per diem for every day he may attend in discharging the duties required of him by this act.

CHAP. XCV.

Passed Jan 27 1865. An Act to enlarge the powers of the Levy Court of Baltimore County, and for other purposes. Lib. TH. No. 1, fol. 155.

See 1807, ch. 46.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, by the memorial of the levy court of Baltimore county, that the mode for many years adopted in the government and support of the alms-house of said county is susceptible of considerable improvement; and it appearing to this general assembly that certain changes and alterations may be made with considerable advantage to the inhabitants of said county, therefore,

Power of trustees of alms and work-houses transferred to levy court.

2. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the first day of March next, all the power, authority and jurisdiction, heretofore had, held and exercised, by the trustees of the alms-house and work-house of Baltimore county, (except the power of filling up their own vacancies,) shall be had, held and exercised, by the levy court of said county, and that the trustees of the said alms-house shall deliver over, upon request, to the said levy court, all books, accounts, papers and proceedings, relating to the affairs of the said alms-house, copies or transcripts of which books, papers and proceedings, it shall be the duty of the said court to allow the trustees to make out and take when required.

By 1817, ch. 87, all the powers vested in the levy court, relating to the poor-house and its lands, &c transferred to the trustees of the poor to be appointed under that act.

Levy court to appoint a purveyor of provisions

3. AND BE IT ENACTED, That it shall and may be lawful for the said levy court to appoint and authorise a purveyor of provi-