

CHAP. 100.

Manner in which Old Town Branch
may be ditched.

2. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall and may be lawful for the proprietors of the lands lying on the north prong of Old Town branch, to ditch the same in manner following, to wit: Beginning at the bottom of a ditch heretofore cut in the land of James Brody, and running thence down the said branch to the place at which a tub mill formerly stood in the said Brody's land, and also for the proprietors of lands lying on the west prong of said Old-Town branch to ditch the same as follows: Beginning at the place where the Nine Bridges Road crosses the said branch in the land of Robert Hardcastle, and running thence down the said prong through the lands of James Clement; and it shall be lawful for the said proprietors to meet on the first Monday of March next, and on the same day annually thereafter, at Greensborough, or any other place which a majority of the proprietors shall appoint, in Caroline county, and for such proprietors, or a majority of those who shall attend at the said meeting, then and there to elect, by ballot, three of the said proprietors for directors, who, or a majority of them, when so elected and chosen, are hereby authorised and empowered to make and open a drain or ditch down each of the said prongs, from the places of beginning to the places aforesaid, in such direction, and of such width and depth, as they, or a majority of them, may judge most proper to carry off the water of said branch, and the power and authority of the said directors, so to be chosen, shall continue and be in force until the next annual election of directors.

Expenses to be paid by proprietors.

3. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the cost, charges and expenses, of cutting and opening the said ditch or drain, shall be paid by the respective proprietors of the same, each paying for the cutting and opening the said drain or ditch through his own land, except where it shall so happen that two or more of the said proprietors hold parts of the said branch through which the said ditch or drain shall be made, adjoining each other, part on the one side thereof and part on the other, in which case each shall pay in proportion to the part he shall or may hold.

Directors to open and keep in repair ditch or drain

4. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the said directors, or any two of them, shall have full power and authority, at any time thereafter, to cut, open and complete, the said drain or ditch, and also from time to time to repair, cleanse and keep open and in good order, the said ditches or drains so to be opened and cut in virtue of this act, at the expense of the said proprietors, in the same proportion that the expenses of cutting and opening the said ditches or drains in the first instance, and of repairing and cleansing the same when cut and opened, the said directors, or any two of them, are hereby authorised to apportion what they may conceive the expense thereof will amount to, and demand and receive such proportions respectively from the said proprietors, before or at any time after the commencement of the said work, or after the same is finished; Provided always, that inasmuch as it may be inconvenient for some of the proprietors through whose land said ditches or drains shall pass, to satisfy and answer all the expenses of cutting and opening said ditch or drain at one term, the said directors, or any two of them, may make an estimate of the expenses of cutting said ditch or drain, and shall pass and apportion the same as above directed, and that the same be paid by the proprietors respectively
