1. Supplement to an act, entitled, An act to alter the mode of Collecting the County Tax in Harford County, Lib. TH. No. 1, fol. 205.

Passed Dec. 31. 1794, ch. 14.

WHEREAS by an act to alter the mode of collecting the county tax in Harford county, the said county is divided into four districts, and inconvenience is experienced from the manner in which said districts are laid out; And whereas the said county is now divided into five election districts, which, if made also the collection districts, would greatly contribute to remove such inconvenience; therefore,

Preamble

2. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the election districts in Harford county shall, after the first day of April next, be deemed the districts for the collection of the county tax, and the justices of the levy court of said county shall appoint one collector for each district, at the same time, in the same manner, and with the same powers, as directed by the original law to which this is a supplement.

Election districts deemed the districts for collection of county tax

3. AND BE IT ENACTED, That all the provisions in said original law, inconsistent with the provisions of this act, be and the same are hereby repealed.

Part of an act repealed.

CHAP. XIX.

1. An Act to Incorporate the Stockholders of the Mechanics Bank of Baltimore, Lib. TH. No. 1, fol. 206.

Passed Dec. 31.

Supplements 1810, ch. 134; 1814, ch. 53, and 1817, ch 39.

WHEREAS the president and directors of the Mechanics Bank of Baltimore, in behalf of themselves and other proprietors of stock in the said bank, have petitioned this general assembly, setting forth, that sundry persons, by articles of voluntary association, have contracted and agreed, each with the other, to conduct and carry on the usual operations of the banking system, at the city of Baltimore, under the name and style of The President and Directors of the Mechanics Bank of Baltimore, and praying that an act may pass to incorporate the stockholders of the said bank: And whereas the mechanical and manufacturing interests of this state may, by such an institution, be promoted, and the prosperity thereof advanced; therefore,

Preamble
