An Act to enlarge the power of the Trustees of the Poor of Montgomery County. Lib. TH. No. 1, fol. 236.

Passed Jan. 3, 1807

WHEREAS Sarah Gray, of Montgomery county, by her petition to this general assembly hath set forth, that she is about sixty-five years of age, and not able to support herself by labour: And whereas it also appears, by the petition of Margaret Wilson, of said county, that she is about sixty years of age, and very poor and infirm; that for several years past she has had to support, by her own feeble exertions, a son about twenty-one or twenty-two years of age, who has become entirely blind, and thereby totally unable to make use of any exertions for his own support, and also a daughter, about twenty years of age, much ulcerated, who had her back broke when very young, and has not been able to walk for several years past, and praying to be supported out of the poor-house as out-pensioners; and the prayer of the said petitioners appearing reasonable, therefore,

Preamble

2. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall and may be lawful for the trustees of the poor of Montgomery county, if they shall be of opinion that the peculiar circumstances of the said Sarah Gray, Margaret Willson, and her son and daughter as aforesaid, are such as to render a situation in the poor-house particularly unsuitable for them, to support them, or either of them, as out-pensioners, in addition to the number now allowed by the act (a), entitled, An act to enlarge the powers of the trustees of the poor in the several counties therein designated, and to allow to the said Sarah Gray a sum for her support, not exceeding thirty dollars, and to the said Margaret Willson, for her own support, and likewise the support of her son and daughter aforesaid, a sum not exceeding sixty dollars, to be paid at such time as the said trustees shall direct, the amount of which said sums shall be levied in the same manner as other expenses of the poor-house in the said county; Provided, that the application of the said Sarah Gray, and Margaret Willson, for herself and children, to be supported as out-pensioners as aforesaid, shall be recommended by the levy court of said county.

Certain persons to be supported as out-pensioners.
