

said land; and the justices of the levy court, and their successors, shall be and are hereby vested with an estate in fee-simple in said land, for the use of such county for ever. CHAP. 65.

CHAP. LXVI.

A Supplement to an act (a), entitled, An act to provide for the appointment of Commissioners for the regulation and improvement of Cambridge, in Dorchester County, and to establish and regulate a Market in said Town. Lib. TH. No. 1, fol. 262. Passed Jan. 4, 1800

(a) 1793, ch. 66. See 1801, ch. 64, and 1815, ch. 70.

WHEREAS the powers granted to the commissioners of the town of Cambridge, by the original act to which this is a supplement, are deemed insufficient to authorise the said commissioners to make such regulations and improvements as are absolutely necessary for the well being and benefit of said town; therefore, Preamble

2. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the commissioners of the town of Cambridge, whenever they, or a majority of them, shall deem it necessary, shall have full power and authority to make such by-laws, and laws and regulations, as shall effect the following objects within the limits of said town, viz. To prevent the running of horses, and the firing of guns in the streets, the burning of chimnies in dry weather, the continuance of unsafe chimnies, stoves or stove-pipes, and also to make, repair and regulate, footways, to make and keep open drains or sewers, to extend the streets or alleys, to renew the boundaries of the streets or alleys, to remove all nuisances, and also to change the days or hours of market, as they shall think necessary. Commissioners authorised to make by laws.

By 1815, ch. 70, the power of the commissioners are enlarged.

CHAP. LXVII.

An Act for the benefit of Elizabeth Webster, of the City of Baltimore. A Private Act. Lib. TH. No. 1, fol. 263. Passed Jan. 3, 1807

CHAP. LXVIII.

An Act to lay out, open and improve, the Road leading from Hancock, in Washington County, to Cumberland, in Allegany County. Lib. TH. No. 1, fol. 264. Passed Jan 5, 1807

See Nov. 1812, ch. 114.

1. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That John Johnson, of Washington county, and Thomas Pratt and Joshua Wilson, of Allegany county, be and they are hereby appointed commissioners, for the purpose, and with full power and authority, they, or a majority of them, to lay out a road from Hancock, in Washington county, to Cumberland, in Allegany county, seeking the best and nearest practicable direction the nature of the ground will admit of. Commissioners appointed to lay out a road.

2. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the commissioners aforesaid, or a majority of them, shall survey, or cause to be surveyed, the road so laid out by them, and without delay execute, sign and seal, plain plots of the same, and make return thereof to the clerk of Allegany county, to be recorded among land records of said county, and when completed as herein after directed, shall be deemed a public road, and shall be kept in repair as all other public roads are kept, that part of said road lying in Allegany county, by the levy court. To cause said road to be surveyed, and plots of the same to be made.