An Act to lay out and open a public Road in the direction herein after mentioned in Baltimore County. Lib. TH. No. 1, fol. 272. Passed Jan 4, 1807

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, by the petition of sundry inhabitants of Baltimore county, that a road laid out from the angle of the Reister's-town turnpike road, near the seat of Edward Johnson, in the nearest and best direction to Isaac Green's mill, upon Jones's Fall, thence with the said Green's present road to intersect the Falls turnpike road, and thence by the nearest and best route to the York turnpike road, at or near the residence of Rosseter Scott, would remove great inconvenience under which said petitioners now labour for want of a road in the above direction, and would greatly promote the public utility; therefore, Preamble
