CHAP. LXXXIII.

Passed Jan 4, 1807. An Act to lay out and straighten a Road from Towson's Tavern, on the Baltimore Turnpike Road, to intersect the Pennsylvania line at Major David Wiley's. Lib. TH. No. 1, fol. 278.

See 1807, ch. 109; 1808, ch. 119; and 1810, ch. 13.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, that the straightening the road from Towson's tavern on the York turnpike in Baltimore county, in the direction to Major David Wiley's on the Pennsylvania line, would be productive of much convenience and benefit; therefore,

Commissioners appointed to lay down a correct plot of road.

2. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That William Johnson, Joshua Stevenson and William Hutchings, of Baltimore county, and Jesse Jarrett and Andrew Turner, of Harford county, be appointed commissioners, and they, or a majority of them, authorised and required to view and lay down a correct plot of the aforesaid road, in the nearest and best direction, and on the best ground, but not to pass through the yard, orchard or garden, of any person or persons without their consent.

Plot, &c. to be returned to next general assembly.

3. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the aforesaid commissioners, or a majority of them, shall return the aforesaid plot, with the probable expense of opening and straightening the aforesaid road, to the next general assembly.

Commissioners' allowance.

4. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the commissioners appointed by this act shall each have an allowance of two dollars for every day they shall severally attend in discharge of the duties required by this act, and the levy court of Baltimore and Harford counties, at the meeting of their next levy court are hereby directed to levy such sum as shall appear due to the commissioners aforesaid, which sum shall be collected and paid over as other county charges are collected and paid.

CHAP. LXXXIV.

Passed Jan. 4, 1807. An Act for the punishment of Forgery, and for other purposes. Lib. TH. No. 1, fol. 279.

This act repealed by 1808, ch. 72.

CHAP. LXXXV.

Passed Jan 4, 1807. An Act authorising the Levy Courts of Anne-Arundel and Prince-George's County to levy a sum of money for building a Bridge over Patuxent River, at Queen-Anne. Lib. TH. No. 1, fol. 280.
