An Act to lay out and make a public Road in Baltimore County. Lib. TH. No. 1, fol. 349.

Passed Jan 20 1808

See 1811, ch. 66.

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, by a number of inhabitants of Baltimore county, that they labour under great inconvenience for want of a public road from Monkton mills, on the Great Falls of Gunpowder, in the county aforesaid, until it intersects the York turnpike road at or near the distance of eighteen miles from the city of Baltimore; therefore.

Preamble

2. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Joshua Meredith, John Sowers and Dickinson Gorsuch, or a majority of them, be commissioners, and are hereby directed and authorised, to lay out a public road from Monkton mills, (the property of Major William Gwynn,) on the Great Falls of Gunpowder, in Baltimore county, until it intersects the York turnpike road at or near the distance of eighteen miles from the city of Baltimore, but not so as to pass through any garden, orchard or meadow, without the consent of the proprietor or proprietors thereof; and the said road, when so laid out, shall be and the same is hereby declared a public highway, to be kept up and repaired in the same manner as other public roads in said county.

Commissioners appointed to lay out a road.

3. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the commissioners aforesaid, or a majority of them, be and they are hereby authorised to ascertain and value what damages may be sustained by any person or persons through whose lands the said road may pass, by opening and clearing the same; and the said valuation shall be made and paid,

Damages to be ascertained.
