CHAP. LVII.

Passed Jan 20 1808 A Further Supplement to the act,† entitled, An act to lay out and make a public Road from the Black House to the Pennsylvania line, in Harford County. Lib. TH. No. 1, fol. 366.

Preamble.

1806, ch. 44.

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, by the petition of Thomas Potcet and Thomas Potcet, junior, that a law passed at the last session of assembly‡ authorising Thomas Potcet and Thomas Potcet, junior, to have a jury summoned to ascertain the damages occasioned by the road being laid through their land, leading from the Black House to the Pennsylvania line, and the said Thomas Potcet and Thomas Potcet, junior, proceeded under the original act and its supplements, to which this is a further supplement, and had a jury summoned, which said jury proceeded and made out their verdict, and returned the same to the levy court of Harford county, and the said court being of opinion that they were not authorised to levy the money agreeably to the return of the aforesaid jury, on account of an error in the law, the word Black Horse being inserted instead of the word Black House; therefore,

Levy court authorised to receive verdict, and levy amount.

2. BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the levy court of Harford county be and they are hereby authorised and directed to receive the verdict so as aforesaid made out by the aforesaid jury, in the same manner, and to have the same effect,
