A Supplement to an act,‡ entitled, An act for founding a College in the City or Precincts of Baltimore, by the name of Baltimore College. Lib. TH. No. 1, fol. 410.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the trustees of Baltimore College, by their memorial to this general assembly, have represented, that it would facilitate the business of the institution if a smaller number of the trustees than are required by the original act, were authorised to transact the business of the college, and have prayed a law may be passed for that purpose; and this general assembly being desirous to aid and promote the institution, therefore,

Principal and vice-principal to be trustees.

2. BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the principal and vice-principal of said college shall, ex officio, be trustees thereof, and any number of the trustees, not less than seven, of the said college, for the time being, when duly assembled, shall have all the authority and power given to the trustees by the original law to which this is a supplement.
