

CHAP. 109. Provided, that such road, in the estimation of a majority of the levy court of each county, shall be considered as useful and necessary, and in such case the said road, or such part thereof as shall be agreed to by a majority of the levy court of each county, is hereby declared to be a public road, and shall be kept in repair by the said counties of Harford and Baltimore respectively, as other public roads in said counties are kept in repair by them; and the levy courts of each of the said counties are authorised and empowered to levy and assess a sum of money, such as in their opinion will be sufficient to clear and open the said road, so far as the same may run in either county, and to appoint an overseer or overseers to open said road.

Plots of same, as run in Baltimore and Harford counties, to be made and recorded.

3 AND BE IT ENACTED, That the commissioners aforesaid are hereby required to make out a plot of said road so far as the same may run in Baltimore county, and another plot of said road so far as it may run in Harford county, under their hands and seals, and make return thereof to the respective county courts, there to be recorded among the land records of said counties.

Allowance to overseers.

4. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the overseer or overseers appointed by either of the levy courts upon or over the said road, shall be entitled to the same allowance for their services as other overseers in said counties respectively may be entitled to.

CHAP. CX.

Passed Jan 20 1808 An Act to incorporate the Contributors to the Baltimore General Dispensary. Lib. TH. No. 1, fol. 422.

See December 1813, ch. 132.

Preamble.

WHEREAS a Dispensary has been established in the city of Baltimore for the purpose of affording medical aid to the indigent poor of that city, and its precincts, which has been supported for several years past by the voluntary contributions of a number of charitable persons, and has been extensively beneficial in its effects, in relieving the poor from sickness and preserving the health of the city, under the direction of managers appointed by the contributors to the said institution: And whereas this general assembly are desirous to encourage and give permanence to an institution of such public utility,

Contributors incorporated.

2. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the contributors to the Baltimore General Dispensary, as well as those who shall hereafter become contributors, shall be and they are hereby created and made a corporation and body politic for ever hereafter, by the name, style and title, of The President and Managers of the Baltimore General Dispensary, and by that name shall have succession, and be capable in law of purchasing, holding, selling, leasing and conveying, lands, tenements, goods, chattels, and other property, real, personal and mixed, provided that the value of the property held at any one time shall not exceed fifteen thousand dollars, and to sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, and to make, have and use, a common seal, and the same to break, alter and renew, at pleasure, and generally to do all acts and things which may be necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this charter.

Present managers to act until election takes place as directed by this act.

3. AND BE IT ENACTED. That the present managers, to wit: the Reverend Joseph G. J. Bend, president, the Reverend Francis Bees-
