CHAP. XXXIX.

An Additional Supplement to an act, (a) entitled, An act to straighten and amend the public Roads in Harford County, and for other purposes. Lib. JG. No. 3, fol. 406. Passed Dec. 19.

(a) 1791, ch 70. See ch. 42, 1801, ch. 28, ch. 49; 1802, ch. 23; 1803, ch. 80; 1804, ch. 72; 1805, ch. 112; 1808, ch. 100; Nov. 1809, ch. 155.

WHEREAS a public road leading from Belle-Air, to intersect the road leading from Thomas Underhill's mill to Peach Bottom Ferry, at Glasgow's store, will be a great public convenience, and is essentially necessary; therefore, Preamble.

2. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That John Forwood, of William, Sedgwick James, John Montgomery, (State Ridge,) William Welsh and Bennet Bussey, be and they are hereby appointed commissioners to lay out a public road, beginning at Belle-Air, so as to pursue the direction of the Bald Friar Road leading from Belle-Air as aforesaid at or near the plantation of Henrietta Wheeler, and thence to run in a direction so as to intersect a public road from Thomas Underhill's mill to Peach Bottom Ferry at Glasgow's store; and in laying out the said road the said commissioners are directed to take into view, as well all the disadvantages which may result to individuals over whose land the said road may run, as the convenience of the public, so as to lay out the said road with as little injury to private property as will comport with the public convenience. Commissioners appointed to lay out road.

3. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the said commissioners are hereby further directed to return a plot of said road, so by them laid out, to the clerk's office of said county, to be there recorded; and the levy court may, at their discretion, after the return of said plot as aforesaid, appoint a supervisor or supervisors to open the same, and shall levy a sum of money, not exceeding one hundred and fifty dollars, for that purpose; and the said road, when opened as aforesaid, shall be taken for, and it is hereby declared to be, a public road in said county, and may be repaired as other public roads are repaired in said county. Plot to be returned—Supervisors.

4. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the commissioners appointed in virtue of this act shall be entitled to an allowance of two dollars for every day they shall severally attend in discharge of the duties herein imposed. Commissioners allowance.

5. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the commissioners herein before named be and they are hereby vested with the same powers in ascertaining the damages to the land over which the road herein directed to be laid out may run, as the commissioners in the original act named have been vested with; and the said damages, when ascertained, shall be levied, collected and paid, as damages heretofore assessed under the said original act have been levied, collected and paid. Their powers in ascertaining damages.
