CHAP. XXVII.

An Act authorising Buckler Bond, of Harford County, to erect Gates on the Road therein mentioned. Lib. TH. No. 2, fol. 166.

Passed Jan. 6 1810.

WHEREAS Buckler Bond, and others, by their petition have represented to this general assembly, that the road leading from Robert Walters's mill until it intersects the road leading from Belle-Air to Baltimore, is but little used, and that it would be of great conveniency to the said Bond to have liberty to erect gates thereon, and little or no inconvenience to the public; therefore,

Preamble.

2. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall and may be lawful for Buckler Bond to erect two gates on the road leading from Robert Walters's mill to the road leading from Belle-Air to Baltimore, at such places as he may think proper, provided the same be on his own land, and provided also that the said gates be hung on good and sufficient iron hinges, and kept in repair, so as to impede, as little as possible, persons travelling either on horseback or with carriages of pleasure or burthen.

Authorised to erect gates.
