CHAP. XXXIX.

An Act for the support of Matthew Bradburn, of Montgomery County. Lib. TH. No. 2, fol. 176.

Passed Jan 6, 1810.

Preamble

WHEREAS Matthew Bradburn, of Montgomery county, by his petition to this general assembly, hath set forth, that he has for seven or eight years been severely afflicted with the rheumatism in such a degree that he has been rendered incapable of procuring a livelihood by hard labour; he has, during the time of his illness, employed the most skillful physicians in the county, whose efforts to procure him relief have been unavailing, and praying that some relief may be granted him out of the poor-house; and the facts stated in his petition appearing true, therefore,

2. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the justices of the levy court of Montgomery county shall, and they are hereby empowered, at their levy court annually, so long as they shall see cause, to assess and levy, on the assessable property of said county, a sum of money, not exceeding thirty dollars, for the support and maintenance of the said Matthew Bradburn, and that the same be collected annually by the collector of Montgomery county, and by him paid to the said Matthew Bradburn, or his order.

Levy authorized for his support.

CHAP. XL.
