An Act to fix and establish Argyle Alley in the City of Baltimore. Lib. TH. No. 2, fol. 240.

CHAP. LXXXII.

See November 1812, ch. 185.

Alley established.

BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That all that part of Argyle-alley north of Fleet-street and south of Wilks-street, in that part of the city of Baltimore commonly called Fell's Point, be and remain as it has heretofore been built upon, to correspond with that part of said alley south of Fleet-street, and be in a direct line or continuation thereof, and that said alley be not altered nor changed from the ground heretofore built upon, used and considered, as such alley, said alley now running parallel with Market and Anne-streets. and being about two hundred feet east of the former, and about two hundred and sixty feet west of the latter part, any thing which certain commissioners in the city of Baltimore have done respecting said alley to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

CHAP. LXXXIII.

Passed Jan 6, 1810

An Act to alter such parts of the Constitution and Form of Government of this State as relate to Voters and qualification of Voters. Lib. TH. No. 2, fol. 241.

Every free white male citizen above 21 years of age, &c. to vote.

1. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That every free white male citizen of this state, above twenty-one years of age, and no other, having resided twelve months within this state and six months in the county, or in the city of Annapolis or Baltimore, next preceding the election at which he offers to vote, shall have a right of suffrage, and shall vote, by ballot, in the election of such county or city, or either of them, for electors of the president and vice-president of the United States, for representatives of this state in the congress of the United States, for delegates to the general assembly of this state, electors of the senate, and sheriffs.

Part of constitution repealed.

2. AND BE IT ENACTED, That all and every part of the constitution and form of government of this state repugnant to, or inconsistent with, the provisions of this act, shall be and the same are hereby abrogated, annulled and made void.

This act, if confirmed, to be a part of the constitution.

3. AND BE IT ENACTED, That if this act shall be confirmed by the general assembly, after the next election of delegates, in the first session after such new election, as the constitution and form of government directs, that in such case this act, and the alteration of said constitution contained therein, shall be considered as a part, and shall constitute and be valid as a part, of the said constitution
