An Act for the relief of John Smithson, of Harford County. Lib. TH. No. 2, fol. 279.

Preamble.

WHEREAS John Smithson, of Harford county, hath represented, by his petition to this general assembly, that a certain road in said county, authorised to be opened by an act of the general assembly, passed at November session, eighteen hundred and five*, was laid out through his land while he was a minor, and without his consent, in such a manner as to subject him to great expenses and inconveniencies, and that he hath never received any compensation for the damages done him by said road, and hath prayed that he may be compensated for the damages which he hath sustained; and his prayer appearing reasonable, therefore,

* Ch. 21.

Damages sustained by him for laying out a road through his land to be ascertained,

2. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Thomas Potect, senior, John Doran and Joshua Rutledge, be and they are hereby authorised, empowered and directed, to ascertain what damages, if any, have been sustained by a certain John Smithson, of Harford county, by reason of a certain road laid out through his land in pursuance of a law passed at November session, eighteen hundred and five, chapter twenty-one, and make a return of the amount of damages aforesaid, if any, so by them ascertained, to the next levy court which shall happen thereafter, and the same shall be thereupon by said court levied and collected as other county charges are, and paid to John Smithson, or order.

Persons appointed to ascertain them to take an oath.

3. AND BE IT ENACTED, That before the aforesaid Thomas Potect, senior, John Doran and Joshua Rutledge, proceed to ascertain such damages, they and each of them shall take the following oath before some person competent to administer the same, viz, "I, A. B. do swear, or affirm, (as the case may be,) that I will faithfully, without favour or partiality, ascertain the damages, if any, sustained by John Smithson, by reason of a road passing through his land, in pursuance of a law passed at November session, eighteen hundred and five, chapter twenty-one."
