

Cocke, William Gwynn and William H. Winder, or a majority of them, shall, before they undertake to act under this law, give their bond to the state of Maryland, in the penalty of two hundred thousand dollars, conditioned that they will well and truly apply so much of the money arising therefrom, within twelve months after the drawing of said lottery, as will satisfy the fortunate adventurers for prizes drawn by them, provided application is made for the payment of such prizes within twelve months after the completion of said drawing, otherwise such prize or prizes shall be deemed relinquished to the managers of the said lottery for the uses intended thereby, and shall, within five years after drawing the same, cause the money raised by the said lottery to be laid out and expended in erecting a monument or statue to the memory of Washington in the city of Baltimore.

By 1816, ch. 77, additional lotteries are authorised, &c.

2. AND BE IT ENACTED, That after the new court-house of Baltimore county, now building in the city of Baltimore, shall be so far completed as to afford suitable accommodation for the courts and public offices of the said county, that then the public square in North Calvert-street, in the city of Baltimore, on part of which the old court-house of Baltimore county now stands, be and the same is hereby appropriated for the erection of the said monument or statue(a), and of such improvements suitable to the said monument or statue, as the said James A. Buchanan, David Winchester, John Comegys, James Calhoun, jun. Nicholas G. Ridgely, James Williams, George Hoffman, James Patridge, Robert Miller, Washington Hall, Isaac M. Kim, Lemuel Taylor, Robert Gilmore, jun. Fielding Lucas, John Frick, James Barroll, Benjamin H. Mulliken, Nathaniel F. Williams, Levi Hollingsworth, Edward J. Cole, Doctor James Cocke, William Gwynn and William H. Winder, or a majority of them, in their discretion, shall deem proper; and power is hereby given to the said James A. Buchanan, David Winchester, John Comegys, James Calhoun, jun. Nicholas G. Ridgely, James Williams, George Hoffman, James Patridge, Robert Miller, Washington Hall, Isaac M. Kim, Lemuel Taylor, Robert Gilmore, jun. Fielding Lucas, John Frick, James Barroll, Benjamin H. Mulliken, Nathaniel F. Williams, Levi Hollingsworth, Edward J. Cole, Doctor James Cocke, William Gwynn and William H. Winder, or a majority of them, to remove any obstructions in the way thereof, on the said public square; and that the said persons herein named, or a majority of them, be and they are hereby nominated and appointed to elect and fix upon such kind of monument, or statue or mausoleum, for the purpose therein specified, as they may deem most proper, and to make such use of the unoccupied parts of said square as shall, in their judgment, be best calculated to add to the beauty and design of such monument or statue.

After completion of new court-house public square on which old one stands appropriated for erection of monument.

(a) By 1816, ch. 77, the scite selected for the monument on North Charles street adopted and confirmed, in lieu of the place here designated; and by 1815, ch. 102, the square of ground appropriated by this act for the erection of a monument to Washington, and not adopted by the managers, is appropriated for the erection of the battle monument.

3. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the said public square, with the said monument or statue, and improvements thereon erected, from and after the said five years from the drawing of the said lottery,
