

XV. Where Judgment is had in any County Court, and the Party against whom the Judgment is, flies into another County, the Justices of the Provincial Court shall, upon Certificate of the Justices where Judgment was given, award Execution against the Body or Goods of the Party flying.

XVI. Bills, Bonds, or other Specialties, Book Debts, or Accounts, proved before 2 Justices of the Peace in any County, or one Justice of the Provincial Court, and that the Ballance thereof is wholly due and unpaid, and certified under the Hands and Seals of such Justices, shall be sufficient Evidence in any Court within this Province.

XVII. An. II. W. 3. 1699. p. 51. All persons that are cast in any Cause shall be amerced (besides the Damages and Costs) in the Provincial Court, 50 l. of Tobacco, and in the County Courts 30 l. of Tobacco. Of which ameracements the Clerk of the Provincial Court, and of the severall County Courts, shall keep an exact account, and deliver or send the same to the severall Sheriffs, who shall collect the same with the Levy and Distrain in default of payment, &c.

XVIII. The Clerk of the respective Courts shall give to the Chief Judge of such Court a List of the ameracements in that Court.

XIX. An. II. W. 3. p. 56. The Commissioners of the severall and respective County Courts may, at their Courts (upon examination of the publick Charges of their severall Counties, and allowance by them made of the same) levy and raise Tobacco for payment and satisfaction of the said County Charges, and the Sheriffs Salary for collecting thereof, by an equal Assessment of the taxable persons of the County.

XX. Provided the account of the said County Charge be kept upon Record, and that upon complaint of any person aggrieved, the said Acts shall be examined and certified in the Provincial Court.

XXI. An. II. W. 3. 1699. p. 67. The Port of Annapolis in Ann-Arundel County shall be the Chief Seat of Justice within this Province, for holding Assemblies, and Provincial Courts; and all Writs, Pleas, and Process returnable to the Provincial, or to the Court of Chancery, shall be made returnable to the said Port of Annapolis.
