each Barrel 1 s. and every other meafure 6 d. under the penalty of 1000 l. of Tobacco, &c. one half to the Poor of the Parifh, the other to the Informer.

Wills and Adminiſtration.

I. An. 11. W. 3. 1699. p. 87. The Judge or Commiſſary General for Probat of Wills, and granting Admini-ſtrations, ſhall hold his Court once in 2 months at leaft, and ſhall proceed according to the Laws of En- gland, ſaving in ſuch cafes as by this Act is provided.

II. The ſaid Judge ſhall call all Executors and Admiſtrators to account within 12 months after the Adminiſtration committed, and if any Adminiſtrator ſhall refuſe to account upon Citation, the Judge ſhall revoke his Admiſtration, and grant it to ſome other perſon, who ſhall ſue firſt Adminiſter for an account of the Inteſtates Eſtate, and in caſe it appears he hath waſted, the Judge ſhall aſſign the firſt Adminiſtrators Bond to the latter Adminiſtrator to be releved for ſuch Waſte.

III. Upon account given by the firſt Adminiſtrator, and after Debts and Funeral Expences paid, the Judge ſhall allow to the Widow (if any) one third part of the clear Eſtate, the other two to be equally divided among the Children (if any) if none, between the next of Blood of the Inteſtate.

IV. After this diviſion the Judge ſhall tranſmit the account thereof to the Juſtices of the reſpective County, who ſhall put the Perſons, Lands and Goods of the Orphans into ſuch hands as they ſhall think fit, taking Bond with two ſufficient Sureties, &c.

V. No Negroe or Slave ſhall be ſold by any Adminiſtrator for payment of Debts, or Execution ſerved on Negroes or Slaves, ſo long as there ſhall be other Goods ſufficient, &c.

VI. No account ſhall be allowed to any Adminiſtrator or Guardian to any Orphan, againſt the Eſtate of the Inteſtate, for Dyet, Cloaths, Phyſick or Education, but the Orphans ſhall be maintained and Educated by the intereſt of their Eſtate and increaſe of their Stock, which if too ſmall, ſuch Orphan ſhall be put Apprentice to ſome Handicraft Trade, till the age of 21 years,