

FRAUDULENT CONVEYANCES—Continued—

- right of creditor, party to fraud, to attack, 544.
- who are creditors within meaning of Statute of Elizabeth, 543-544.
- status of, as to creditors, at law and in equity, 540-543.
- right to set aside, without judgment at law, 541-542.
- right of creditor to restrain making of, 542.
- rights of creditors against fraudulent grantee, 538-539.
- gifts of lands, tenements and chattels in fraud of creditors subject to execution, 243.
 - even though made to "use and behoof" of another, 243.
- effect of, as between parties thereto, 538, 544.
- right of grantee to re-imbusement where deed set aside, 537-539.
- rights of purchaser from fraudulent transferee, 539.
- rights of purchaser from heir as against conveyance of ancestor, 566.
- liability of grantee for rent where deed set aside, 537.
- effect of voluntary conveyance as against subsequent purchaser from grantor, 559-562.
- conveyance from husband to wife must be attacked within three years, 516.
 - statutory requirement as to recording defeasance, 514.
 - effect of failure to record defeasance, 514.
- particular classes of conveyances*
 - assignment for creditors, 519-520, 523 et seq.
 - marriage settlement, 516-519.
 - conveyance made in contemplation of marriage, 544.
 - conveyance from husband to wife, 516-518.
 - conveyance of husband attacked by wife as fraudulent, 543-544.

FUGITIVE—

See BAIL.

Code provision relating to, 79.

G

GAMING—

See CONTRACTS.

powers of police as to seizure of gaming articles, 646.

keeping gaming tables, 650-651.

on horse races, 650-651.

GAOLER—

See JAILER.

GIVE—

effect of use of word, in conveyance, 99.

GOVERNOR—

power to order out militia to suppress riots, 275.

remission of fine or forfeiture by, 345.