

GUARDIAN AND WARD—Continued—

- power of guardian to change ward's domicil, 641.
- requirements as to giving of bond by guardian, 637-638.
- expenditures by guardian, 638-639.
- rights of guardians against each other, 636.
- survivorship between guardians, 636.
- effect of ward's marriage on guardianship, 640.
- control by chancery over guardians, 640-642.
- grounds for removal of guardian, 640-642.
- power of orphans court to remove guardian, 641-642.
- when habeas corpus maintainable for ward, 643.

H

HABEAS CORPUS—

- to whom writ should be directed, 231.
- when maintainable by guardian, 643.

HEIRS—

- the word, meaning of, 46-47.

HEREDITAMENTS—

- See CONVEYANCES; COVENANTS; DOWER; FORCIBLE ENTRY AND DETAINER.

HOLIDAYS—

- presentment of instrument falling due on, 772.

HOMICIDE—

- See BAIL.

HOUSE-BREAKING.

- Code provision relating to, 79.

HUE AND CRY—

- defined, 210.
- requirement of proclamation of statute relating to, 256.
- as method of pursuing felons, practice and statute relating to, 210-211.
- duty of constables and individuals to pursue, when called on, 210.
- crime to raise, without cause, 210.
- who may be arrested under, 211.
- right of constable to break through doors, 211.
- pursuit without investigation of charge, 211.
- protection of pursuers where charge proves false, 211; or wrong person arrested, 211.

HUNDRED—

- suits against, not in use here, 211.