

INFANTS—Continued—

suits by and against

- infancy as objection to suit in state's name for infant's use, 159, 161.
- when majority of female is reached for purposes of suit, 162.
- capacity to sue as informer, 551.
- how they sued at common law, 158.
- common law mode still available, 158, 161.
- practice where infant appears by attorney, 159-160.
- suing by attorney and proceeding by guardian, and conversely, 159.
- suing by attorney where parties include both infants and adults, 160.
- appearance by attorney upon reaching majority, 161.
- avertment as to guardian or next friend, 159.
- statement of infancy in declaration, 159.
- how infant defends, 158-159.
- equity rules as to, 162.
- when not bound to answer, in suit involving lands to which entitled by purchase, 160.
- practice where infant takes place of deceased party in action involving land, 160.
- judgment where infant defends by attorney, 159.
- pleading infancy in abatement, 159.
- liability of infant party for costs, 161.
- effect of submission of cause to arbitration by infant, 841.

prochein ami

- suit by, under statute, 158.
- whether he is infant's guardian not inquired into, 161-162.
- necessity for formal admission of, 159, 161.
- relation of, to cause, 159.
- powers of, as to litigation and its fruits, 159.
- power of court over, 159, 161.
- power of infant over, 161.
- liability of, for costs, 159, 161.
- appointment of another upon death of, 161.
- competency of, as witness, under Code, Art. 35, sec. 3, 159.

guardian ad litem

- necessity for formal admission of, 161.
- appointment of, 161.
- whether he is guardian of infant's person not inquired into, 161-162.
- power of infant over, 161.
- entry in record of change of, 161.

INFORMER—

See PENALTIES.

INJUNCTION—

- See EQUITY; WASTE; and other specific titles.
- when trespass will be enjoined, 157.
- right of creditor to restrain making of fraudulent conveyance, 542.