

PLEADING—

- See ACTIONS; titles relating to specific actions.
- forms of pleadings in Code sufficient, 433.
- what pleadings should contain, 433-434.
- necessity to negative exceptions in enacting clause of statute sued on, 346.
- necessity to negative exceptions of statute in pleading thereunder, 346, 662.
- duplicity in, 902-903.
- when general demurrer available, 900-901, 902.
- abolition of special demurrer, exception, 900-901.
- consistency of pleas, 902-904.
- each plea must be sufficient in itself, 904.
- form of commencing pleas given in Code probably exclusive, 435.
- when plea to part of declaration is ground for demurrer, and when for discontinuance, 435.
- discontinuance of plea or process, explained, 435-436.
- miscontinuance distinguished from discontinuance, 436.
- misprision of commorancy*, plea of, 662.
- plea of solvit post diem, 906, 907.
- pleas of tender and of payment into court, 908-910.
- when plea of payment available, 906, 907.
- sufficiency of plea of payment, 906.
- construction and operation of provision of Stat. 4 Anne, relative to plea of payment, 906-908.
- plea of non est factum required to be verified, 906.
- construction and operation of Stat. 4 Anne, requiring dilatory plea to be verified, 904-906.
- rules relative to plea in abatement, 904.
- statutes relating to amendments inapplicable to certain pleas, 904.
- how defective dilatory plea objected to, 905.
- construction of statute curing defects in form, after verdict, 554-555.
- matters of, relative to Statute of Frauds, 701-702, 743.
- how executor de son tort sued, 575, 576.
- recovery by partner of firm and individual property in same suit, 131.
- in action on bond, legislation and practice relating to, 828-832.
- form of action for use and occupation, in general, 1005.
- when assumpsit maintainable for use and occupation, 1005-1009.
- right to bill of particulars, 902.
- sufficiency of bill of particulars, 902.
- profert* and oyer, 902.
- acts and admissions of legal plaintiff as affecting rights of beneficiary, 380.

POLICE—

- powers of, as to seizure of gaming articles, 46.