

BLAND, C., 10th October, 1826.—Ordered, that John McHenry and Edward Campbell, the trustees who have been displaced by the order of the 30th of September last, be and they are hereby directed, on or before the 1st day of January next, to make a report to this Court of all and singular the money or property which, by virtue of the trust reposed in them, by the last will and testament of the late William Campbell, may be now in their hands or possession, or have been in their hands or possession, or either of them; or which has been disposed of by them or either of them; with a full and particular account of all sales, receipts disbursements, made in their joint or respective capacities of trustees. And it is further ordered, that they and each of them, be and are hereby directed and required forthwith to pay and deliver over unto the said trustee John I. Donaldson, all money and property which they or either of them may have in their or either of their hands or possession, by virtue of the said trust. Provided that a * copy of this order be served on the said John McHenry, and on the said Edward Campbell, on or before the 1st day 214 of November next.

For the purpose of enabling the Court to make a just and equitable distribution of the assets of the testator, among his creditors, on motion of the trustee, the case was submitted to obtain an order for giving them notice to bring in their claims, the vouchers of some of whose claims had been filed on the 22d of January, 1824, with the original bill.

BLAND, C., 24th January, 1827.—Ordered, that the creditors of William Campbell, late of Frederick County, deceased, file the vouchers of their claims in the Chancery office, within four months from this date; and that a copy of this order be inserted once in each of three successive weeks in one of the Annapolis, Baltimore, and Fredericktown newspapers, before the 10th day of March next.

This order was published as directed; and John Baltzell, on the 16th of February, 1827; E. H. Rockwell, on the 6th of March, 1827; and George Bowles, on the 12th of May, 1827, filed the vouchers of their claims as creditors of the testator.

The trustee, Donaldson, by his several reports, stated, that he had received from the Washington Tontine Company, $1,556.27, being the amount of a dividend of $20.75 per share, on seventy-five shares of that stock, held by the testator; upon which he was allowed a commission of $78.74. And he further reported, that he had sold two of the lots in the City of Washington, for the sum of $686.37, which sales were finally ratified, on the 14th of September, 1827. And he further reported, that he had received of
