

Mrs. Mary Dove made oath that the bedd ticking in John Coopers Account att the Suite of Charletts Administrator was Delivered and Sold to one John Upshaw etc.

[300] Whereas William Conley and James Moore became Spetiall [bail] for Charles Tracey this Court at the Suite of James Brooke for the Sume of four thowsand Six hundred and Sixty pounds of tobaccoe and at the Suite of Allexander Magruder for the Sume of four thowsand two hundred pounds of tobaccoe Whereupon Imediatly After Came the Said Conley and Moore and delivered the body of the Said Tracey into Court to be delivered up into the Costody of the Sheriffe for that they will not Stand any Longer Spetiall baile for the Said Tracey in the Actions Aforesaid Whereupon Came David Small into Court and offered himselfe to be Spetiall baile for the Said Charles Tracey in the Said two Actions aforesaid as by the Records following more att Large may Appeare etc.

Charles Tracey Came into Court and Acknowledged that the Debts Sued for by James Brookes and Allexander Magruder to this Court are Justly due Whereupon the Court Ordered that Judgment Should be Entred for the Same. But Charles Tracey Answered and Said that Judgment ought not to pass against him this Court for these Reasons following first because this Is but the Appearance Court Secondly because he Could not have any Attorney to plead for him Except he takes one of the plaintiffs Attorney and thirdly that the Decleration was not Left with him According to Law.

Ordered that Allexander Magruder pay unto Charles Walker ninty pounds of tobaccoe for his Attendance three dayes against Charles Tracey.
