have arisen before the tenth day of January seventeen hundred and eighty-five, shall be brought in, liquidated and settled, on or before the tenth day of November seventeen hundred and eighty-five; and no claim against the state by any citizen thereof, which did arise on any account or transaction whatsoever before the said tenth day of January seventeen hundred and eighty-five, shall after the said tenth day of November seventeen hundred and eighty-five, be passed or settled by the auditor or intendant, or paid by this state, unless the person having such claim is or shall be an infant, non compos mentis, or feme covert, or be out of this state, in which cases one year shall be allowed to such persons respectively, after the disability removed or the person to being out of the state returns, to bring in and settle such claims: And whereas it is represented to this general assembly, that sundry citizens of this state having claims upon the same, through the remoteness of their situation from the auditor or intendant, and other causes, have not brought in the said claims to be liquidated and settled on or before the aforesaid tenth day of November seventeen hundred and eighty-five, as directed by the above recited act; and it appearing reasonable that a further time should be allowed for the purpose aforesaid to such persons as have just claims against this state;

Claims by citizens may be brought in by June 1st. &c.

II. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That all claims upon this state by any citizen thereof, (except claims for the depreciation and pay of the army previous to the first day of August seventeen hundred and eighty-five,) which have arisen before the said tenth day of January seventeen hundred and eighty-five, may be brought in, passed and settled, by the auditor-general or intendant, on or before the first day of June seventeen hundred and eighty-six, and paid by this state, any thing in the said recited act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Claims by persons not citizens to be brought in by Dec. 1, &c.

III. And be it enacted, That all claims against this state by any citizen of any other of the United States, shall be brought in and settled as aforesaid, on or before the first day of December seventeen hundred and eighty-six, and that no claim against this state as aforesaid, which shall not be brought in and settled agreeably to the directions of this act, shall hereafter be paid by this state. Unless the person having such claim be an infant, feme covert, or person non compos mentis, or in some foreign country, in which cases one year shall be allowed to bring in and settle such claim after the disability removed or the return of such person to this or some one of the United States, as the case may be.

Copy to be transmitted, &c.

IV. And be it enacted, That a copy of this act, under the great seal, shall be sent as soon as may be to the respective executive powers of the other United States by the governor of this state, with a request that the substance of this act be published.
